Baby Royal—First Prize “Most Artistic Arrangement of Miniatures”

Bolsa DAHLIA GARDEN

197 OAKDALE AVENUE, MILL VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

1935

THIS 1935 issue of our Catalog contains a list of the Pompons, Miniatures and English Singles we have grown this past season and recommend. Each year our list is revised for Dahlias like merchandise have their fashions and to keep abreast with the times we have to grow many of the new introductions—so we have included in this list those we think are outstanding and choice.

There still continues to be an increasing interest in the small varieties and this is not surprising as there is so much to be said in their favor—they are dainty and graceful, extremely colorful, easy of cultivation, bloom very freely and keep well for days when cut.

Pompons are small ball-shaped flowers and always greatly in demand. Miniatures are the same form as the large dahlias but miniature in size, and because of their special charm we predict they will be grown more and more extensively as they become better known.

We again helped to make history with a very beautiful exhibit at the 1934 Show of the Dahlia Society of California in San Francisco, receiving first prize for the most artistic table. Our exhibits were all shown in white receptacles of Italian pottery, two pictures of which appear in this catalog—we are sorry our catalog is not large enough to show them all.

In the Pompon class we received first for the best receptacle of pompons with Bantam; first for the most artistic with an arrangement of purples and lavenders with Minnie Mells predominating; and first for the best collection consisting of Anna von Schwerin, Donny, Golden Sunshine, Bantam, Minnie Mells, Mary Munns, Taka's Purple, Honey and Helen Anita.

In the Miniature class we received first on our collection consisting of Coronne, Elizabeth Pape, Golden California, Baby Royal, Sanhican's Sweetheart and Little Jewel. First for the most artistic receptacle with Baby Royal and second for the best miniatures with Golden California.

We also received the prize for the small types in white, in yellows and in the singles with Union Jack.

We encourage correspondence with our customers and will gladly help them in any way we can. We carefully grow and care for our stock and feel sure there is none better.

Sincerely,

"THE HAAKES"

NEW DAHLIAS

BOLSA DAHLIA GARDEN INTRODUCTION FOR 1935

ELIZABETH ANN . We are very happy to introduce this very fine little pompon whose merit was recognized and it was given a place among the 1935 Honor Roll Dahlias in the American Home Magazine. Its color will appeal to you—a beautiful peach rose with a glint of gold, a rare color—we do not know of another pompon of exactly this shade. Its perfection is enhanced by its definite tendency to smallness.

OUTSTANDING NOVELTIES FROM OTHER GROWERS

- | | | |
|------------------------|--|------|
| BABY JERSEY . . . | A very excellent rose pink formal decorative miniature with form and habits of Jersey's Beauty. | .75 |
| BABY ROYAL . . . | This new Gold Medal Miniature from England has been the center of attraction this past season winning prizes wherever exhibited. It is a lovely salmon pink shaded apricot of semi-cactus form. Its low growing bushes are covered with graceful blossoms on long wiry stems. | .75 |
| MISS VIVIAN . . . | A most beautiful new miniature of outstanding merit included in the 1935 Honor Roll of the American Home Magazine and winner of three prizes at the 1934 show in San Francisco. This perfect rose pink informal decorative is of compact formation and stands erect on long stems well above the foliage in a mass of blooms and was one of the prettiest sights in our garden this past season. We can highly recommend this miniature as a perfect specimen of its class with excellent keeping qualities and good for all purposes. | 5.00 |
| NESTHAKCHEN . . . | This is one of the choice new novelties in the miniature class. It is a fully double cactus of creamy chamois with lovely shading of rosy amethyst. Very low growing bushes covered with blooms. | 1.00 |
| SANHICAN'S SWEETHEART. | Another repeated prize-winner—one of the new very attractive miniatures of the cactus form; color a pale apricot shade suffused with shrimp pink. Plants grow low and are laden with long stem flowers, excellent for cutting. | .75 |

DAHLIA SEED

Growing dahlias from seed is a matter of experiment and chance. The better the seed the better the results. The seed we offer for sale is the same grade of seed we plant ourselves so you have just the same possibility as we have in originating a new variety. From a package of seed you will get many colors and forms. A large percentage of the seed will germinate, produce healthy plants with a few small tubers and all will bloom the first year. Every dahlia garden should have its seedling patch; it is one of the most interesting, inexpensive and thrilling features of dahlia culture.

One package of Pompon seed (100 seeds)	$1.00
One-half package of Pompon Seed50
One package of Miniature or English Single seed25
One package of Miniature Baby Royal seed50
